

A Stranger Joined Them as They Walked

D G D A<sup>7</sup> D

1. A strang-er joined them as they walked and lis-tened to them there.
 2. The strang-er shared from an-cient word: pro-phet-ic truth re-vealed.
 3. The strang-er now be-came their friend.They want-ed him to stay.
 4. So, when a strang-er comes to you, give wel-come, filled with grace.

He heard, un-fold-ing as they talked, a sto-ry of de-spair:
 Their hearts were o-pened as they heard the word of life un-sealed,
 They did not want this time to end."Come, eat with us to-day."
 Reach out, as Christ ex-pects you to, and meet him face to face.

and qui-et-ly, with pa-tient love, gave com-fort to their hurt.
 as lov-ing-ly he shared with them the prom-ised hope ful-filled.
 And when he blessed and broke the bread, their hearts were strange-ly warmed.
 When to the least you of-fer love, to Je-sus you draw near.
