

There Are No Strangers To God's Love

1. There are no stran - ers to God's love, yet we have pri - va -
2. These are our neigh - bours and our friends, the ones who run in 3. When peo - ple seek - ing sanc - tu - ary come to our shores and tised God's grace. Bound - ed by na - tion - hood and lies, in fear from war, who dread a - buse by power or state, or need our aid, then in Christ's name let's of - fer care through fear we shroud - ed love's own face. Ac - knowl - edg - ing our seek the means to be less poor; these are the ones we this our debt of love is paid. God's grace is free, this sin and greed we come con - fess - ing com - mon need. have de - nied, as in each one the Christ has cried.

grace re - ceive, let ac - tions show what we be - lieve.
